Welcome to

Tiny and Tim

Tiny and Tim was founded in 2015 by long-standing colleagues Tim Cook and George Scudder, who share over 50 years experience within publishers like Random House, Hachette, Octopus and Bonnier.

We are really passionate about children's books and we're also very fond of tea and biscuits!

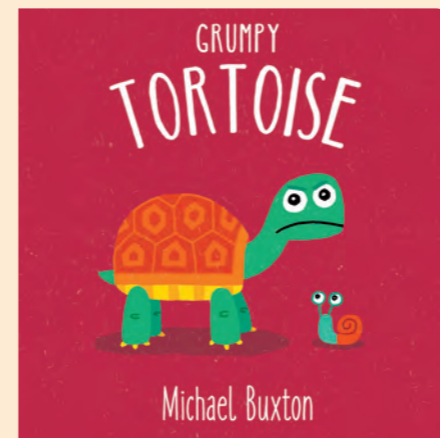

- We produce board books, picture books, gift books and non-fiction for ages 0 to 8 years.
- The core principles of our books are: interactivity, emotional development, playfulness, diversity and educational value.
- We are privileged to work with a group of the most creative illustrators, authors and editors from across the globe who help us deliver books that make our readers smile and invite them to think.
- We have built a reputation for producing bestselling titles for publishers worldwide. 2022 marks our transition to becoming a publisher in our own right, with the first titles available from September.
- We understand the importance of customer feedback. Constructive criticism is a tool we actively use to improve our books.

Michael Buxton

From a young age, Michael Buxton was obsessed with drawing. If he wasn't scribbling dinosaurs or other fantastic creatures, he'd have his head buried in a book. Later, he graduated with a degree in illustration and began his career in the greetings card industry.

Expressive characters and a strong sense of humour are hallmarks of his work. He retains a joyful, hand-drawn quality – exactly the style he loved when he was child.

He lives in a small village in central England surrounded by his collection of Star Wars memorabilia.
